Intern Remuneration Structure

National Youth Development Conference (NYDC)

Effective Date: 1st April 2025

1. Overview

This document outlines the remuneration structure for interns associated with the National Youth Development Conference (NYDC). The structure is designed to incentivize performance-based outreach and registrations across various competitions.

Remuneration is directly linked to the number of successful registrations brought in by each intern.

2. General Remuneration Policy

- Interns will receive 10% of the registration fee for each participant they onboard.
- This policy applies to all competitions except MUN, Moot Court, Film Making, and Raag Jaam, which follow a tiered incentive structure.
- Remuneration is calculated based on the applicable registration fee at the time of payment.
- In case of any change in registration fees (e.g., early bird to regular), the remuneration will be adjusted accordingly.

3. Competition-wise Fee Structure & Incentives

Tiered Incentive Competitions

Competition	Registration Fee	First Tier	Subsequent Tier
MUN	₹1,700 per delegate	10% (first 15 delegates)	15% (after 15 delegates)

Film Making	₹3,000 per registration	10% (first 3)	15% (after 3)

4. Example Earning — Tiered Incentive Structure

The following example illustrates how earnings are calculated under the tiered structure for MUN:

Delegates 1–15 (15 delegates)	10% × ₹1,700 = ₹170 each	15 × ₹170 = ₹2,550
Delegates 16–35 (20 delegates)	15% × ₹1,700 = ₹255 each	20 × ₹255 = ₹5,100
Total (35 MUN Delegates)		₹7,650

7. Excellent Performance Rewards Program

To recognize and celebrate exceptional performance, NYDC offers exclusive monetary and non-monetary rewards to top-performing interns who demonstrate outstanding contribution, consistency, and impact.

- Interns achieving top-tier results in registrations, conversions, and overall engagement will be eligible for curated rewards.
- Rewards may include premium items such as Titan Watches, Sneakers, Spotify Premium subscriptions, and other lifestyle incentives.
- Selection will be based on a combination of performance metrics, consistency, initiative, and team contribution.
- These rewards are designed to acknowledge not just numbers, but leadership, creativity, and commitment.

8. Important Notes

- Any fraudulent or duplicate registrations will lead to immediate disqualification from the incentive program.
- The organizing team reserves the right to revise the remuneration structure if required.
